

Lecture summary

- We defined Elasticsearch and Kibana privileges with a custom role
- That's more secure than giving all privileges to everyone
- We assigned the custom role to a user
- Using built-in roles is typically not sufficient
  - Especially when configuring Elasticsearch index privileges
- Kibana hides features for which we have no privileges